CONSOLES

Doppler reinvents the style and function of a traditional furnishing item such as the console, lending it a bold and contemporary personality thanks to the contrast between the top in essence or marble from the collection and the light structure with black finishing. A new passe-partout, to be used as a stand-alone piece or together with other elements, the Doppler console fits with its eclectic elegance in any furnishing context.

Console with structure in metal with Black (matt) finishing.
